

Instructions

- 1) Head outside and find or create a puddle. This will be the subject that you will be observing.
- 2) Using chalk draw around the puddle. Use string to measure the perimeter of the puddle and record this on the table.
- 3) Repeat step 2 every hour.
- 4) Complete the line graph with your results.
- 5) Think about what has caused your results.

