

Conclusion:

You now need to think about where the water has gone. Did somebody steal the puddle? Answer the questions below to create your conclusion.

What happened to the puddle over time?

Why do you think this happened?

What could make the puddle disappear more quickly?

In what situation would the puddle not disappear?

Where does the water go after it has disappeared?

