

The Human Web!

Find two trees that are close together. Using rope or string, create a spiders' web big enough to trap a child! Think carefully about the different shapes and patterns spiders use when building their webs.

Take a photo and stick in a picture of your finished web

